

Hastings Smith Memorial Vocal Scholarship Application

A yearly scholarship sponsored by a volunteer chorale made up of singers from Los Alamos, Santa Fe, and surrounding areas. The award is intended to assist someone dedicated to vocal singing in his or her college pursuits. The applicant does not have to plan to major in music, but a strong past achievement and future interest must be demonstrated.

Value of Award: $500.00

Eligibility: Graduating Seniors who plan to continue their vocal musical pursuits in college

Submission:

Application materials must be emailed/uploaded to sdccdirector@gmail.com no later than April 16th, 2021.

Award Announcement:

An email with the award announcement will be shared with the scholarship awardees, their schools and the members and audience of the Sangre de Cristo Chorale. Selected students may be asked to share a photo to go with the announcement.

Hastings Smith Memorial Vocal Scholarship Application

Student Name:

Student Age:

High School attended:

Mailing Address:

Email address

Phone Number: _

Other Awards/Scholarships given (name and amount):

Name and Phone Number of a mentor with whom we could discuss your application:

Hastings Smith Memorial Vocal Scholarship Application

Applicants are asked to provide both a short video and a written essay

- For the video: Singers should submit a short (three minutes or less) video performance of a classical or musical theater song. It is preferable to sing with an accompaniment if this is technologically possible for the singer. Submit the video via www.wetransfer.com (free) to sdccmusicdirector@gmail.com.
- For the essay: Please describe your musical experience and accomplishments, your goals in pursuing further study of vocal music, and how the award would be used to assist your progress. If applicable, you may provide additional information regarding your current financial situation. The essay should be submitted by email to sdccmusicdirector@gmail.com